The screenshot displays the CloutHub interface with an orange header bar. On the left, a large purple circle with a white 'C' is centered. To its right, text explains that participants use the chat to ask questions, with an arrow pointing to a chat icon in the top right corner. Below this, text instructs to click to begin subtitles, with an arrow pointing to the subtitle box on the right. The subtitle box contains text about clicking the gear icon to change font size or language, with an arrow pointing to the gear icon. The chat box on the right contains text about uploading documents, with an arrow pointing to the document icon. The interface also shows a 'Now Translate' button, a 'Roll Call' button, and a 'CloutHub' logo.
